

CIS and UPA Products

On November 30, 2010, Reed Elsevier, the parent company of LexisNexis, completed the sale of the CIS and UPA product lines to ProQuest. Support for these products is now provided by ProQuest. Please see their website at <http://cisupa.proquest.com>.

LexisNexis Products Transferred to ProQuest

- All CIS microform and print collections, including CIS Index, SRI, and IIS
- All UPA microform and print collections
- LexisNexis Congressional online database, including Statutes at Large, Congressional Hearings Digital Collection, Congressional Record Permanent Digital Collection, Congressional Research Digital Collection, US Serial Set Digital Collection, and US Serial Set Maps Collection
- LexisNexis Statistical Insight online database, including Statistical DataSets
- LexisNexis Government Periodical Index online database
- LexisNexis Primary Sources in US History online database

For More Information

LexisNexis Academic Wiki

<http://wiki.lexisnexis.com/academic/index.php?title=Academic>

Press Release from ProQuest regarding the purchase of CIS and UPA products

<http://www.proquest.com/en-US/aboutus/pressroom/10/20101130.shtml>